

Institutional Membership Agreement

This agreement provides University of Louisiana at Lafayette at 400 East. St. Mary Boulevard, Lafayette, LA 70503 with membership in LYRASIS effective July 1, 2018 until June 30, 2019.

Membership affords institutional access to LYRASIS services. LYRASIS provides access to shared knowledge and expertise, innovative products and services, and customized solutions, so that member institutions may better serve their communities through savings and efficiency. Membership in LYRASIS also allows individual member institutions to join others in groups of common interest and to leverage their own resources more effectively.

In joining LYRASIS, the member agrees to:

- Abide by the bylaws of LYRASIS (<https://www.lyrasis.org/about/Documents/LYRASIS-Amended-Bylaws-April-2017.pdf>)
- Assume and pay promptly all financial obligations arising from membership and participation in services;
- Acknowledge that LYRASIS frequently enters into a Central license agreement for licensed content on behalf of member institutions and this will require individual approvals from a member institution, should the institution become a participant in any of these central licenses.
- The Member's director or designee shall serve as its representative and shall have one vote in the annual election of LYRASIS Trustees and in any other matters decided by vote of the membership.
- Generally, maintain current awareness of LYRASIS member responsibilities, confidentiality, and policy issues.

This Membership Agreement shall be executed by duly authorized representatives of the Member and LYRASIS and shall remain effective through June 30, 2019, at which time, a new Membership Agreement will be executed.
