STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES (SSS)

Eligible participants can take advantage of FREE opportunities in the Academic, Support, Financial, Career, and Computer areas. Are you: Receiving a Pell Grant? Did Neither Parent Graduate from College? Have a Documented Disability? If you said yes to ANY of these, then you may be eligible!

ACADEMIC:

- Tutoring in math, sciences, behavioral sciences (psychology, sociology, etc.)
- Assistance in writing (developing a thesis statement, discussing ideas, etc.)
- Assistance in English courses (punctuation, grammar, etc.)
- Supplemental Instruction courses for math and sciences

SUPPORT:

- Trained Counselors to monitor your progress toward your desired degree
- Assist you with important university dates and deadlines
- Assist with making a good schedule and help with registration
- Ensure you know the resources the UL Lafayette has to offer

FINANCIAL AID/LITERACY:

- Free Grant Aid to eligible participants (Free $$$)
- Help with completing the FAFSA
- Answer Financial Aid questions
- Help you understand how to budget for each semester
- Assist with the UL Lafayette Financial Aid process

UPPERCLASSMEN ACTIVITES:

- Career/Major Exploration
- Internships
- Graduate School Admissions and Financing
- Resume building

COMPUTER:

- Three computer labs for SSS participants only equipped with the latest APPLE and DELL computers
- Citing and Writing software
- Engineering software (AutoCAD)

Students must complete an application to be considered for the SSS Program. Complete an application TODAY, but hurry because SSS has limited space available. We look forward to working with you and helping you to meet your academic and graduation goals.

Scan the QR Code below to complete an application; go to http://bit.do/SSSapp; or you can complete a paper application and either fax it to 337-482-6833 or scan it and send electronically to warren@louisiana.edu.

