

PRESIDENT

University of Louisiana at Lafayette

The Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System invites applications and nominations for the position of President of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. The individual selected as President will assume the position by June 1, 2008.

With over 16,000 students, the University's academic offerings comprise over 120 programs for undergraduates and 38 graduate curricula, including nine doctoral programs. Featuring over 35 research centers and institutes, UL-Lafayette generates over $40 million in external funding each year and has earned the distinction as a Carnegie Research University with High Research Activity.

The University is located in the heart of French Louisiana, a very pleasant and exciting place to live, where joie de vivre is much more than a tourist slogan.

At a minimum, the candidate shall be expected to have an earned doctorate from an accredited institution and successful experience in an institution of higher education.

While applications and nominations will be accepted until a new President is selected, interested persons are encouraged to submit materials by October 1, 2007. To apply, please send a letter of application, current résumé, and a list of three or more references with contact information to:
