

- Diversity Events ▶
- Diversity Education ▼
- » Courageous Conversations
- » Registration
- Campus Offices
- Campus Resources
- LGBTQ Resources
- Student Organizations ▶
- Graduate Student Resources
- Black Faculty & Staff Association ▶

Home » Campus Culture » Diversity Education

Courageous Conversations

The Office for Campus Diversity has launched a new initiative called "Courageous Conversations." These roundtable discussions for groups of faculty and staff will provide an opportunity to learn and share your own best practices for engaging diversity and inclusion, both inside and outside the classroom.

COURAGEOUS CONVERSATIONS

Centering the Margins: Building Social Justice Understandings Through Yoga

Friday, April 26, 2019
10:30 am - 12:00 pm
Dupre Library Staff Lounge (Room 221)

The last Courageous Conversations session for the Spring semester is "Centering the Margins: Building Social Justice Understandings Through Yoga." Dr. Valin S. Jordan, founder of Yoga4SocialJustice and assistant professor of Diversity Education in the College of Education, will lead faculty and staff through guided mediation, self-inquiry, and social justice teachings. These exercises aim to bring a greater understanding of why those who exist in the margins must be centered.

Please come prepared with a notebook.

Register Here

For future topic suggestions or questions, contact the Office for Campus Diversity at (337) 482-6464 or diversity@louisiana.edu.

University of Louisiana at Lafayette
Office for Campus Diversity
104 University Circle, Lafayette, LA 70503
Martin Hall 243
(337) 482-6464 | diversity@louisiana.edu

@Louisiana Newsletter

Enter your email address

SIGN UP

Connect with Us

A Member of the UL System

IT Help & Support

Web Accessibility

Privacy Policy

Emergency Info.

Donate

© 2019 University of Louisiana at Lafayette. All rights reserved.