Program / Department Assessment Narrative

The primary purpose of assessment is to use data to inform decisions and improve programs (student learning) and departments (operations); this is an on-going process of defining goals and expectations, collecting results, analyzing data, comparing current and past results and initiatives, and making decisions based on these reflections. In the space below, describe the program's or department's overall plan for improving student learning and/or operations (the "assessment plan"). Consider the following:

- 1) What strategies exist to assess the outcomes?
- 2) What does the program/department expect to achieve with the goals and objectives identified above?
- 3) How might prior or current initiatives (improvements) influence the anticipated outcomes this year?
- 4) What is the plan for using data to improve student learning and/or operations?
- 5) How will data be shared within the Program/Department (and, where appropriate, the College/VP-area)?

Assessment Process

1) The department uses specific rubrics to assess our different goals, such as dissertation rubrics, prospectus rubrics, etc. These are filled out by faculty after each exam, defense, etc. and the average is used to complete the assessment measures. In terms of mentoring, students are required to fill out a specific form twice a semester; this tool helps us keep track of their progress.

2) With our goals and objectives, the program expects to better supervise students (which helps with retention) and ensure that they meet our requirements while producing high-impact work. Further, we are committed to underrepresented students who can have access to graduate-level education in a supportive environment. All of our initiatives (annual colloquium, recruitment, retention efforts, mentoring, etc.) make the program more visible and more appealing.

3) Our mentoring initiative (Student SI, Student SI 3), for instance, has allowed us to better keep track of students' progress and interests to make sure they do well on their exams and research projects. In addition to our other initiatives which bring students and faculty closer, our new summer grant encourages students to produce higher quality work to be selected for the award.

4) In light of the results, we will identify what initiatives really work, which ones need to be re-tailored or developed further, and which ones are more time consuming than really effective. Results will be shared during a meeting with the Graduate Faculty to make sure everyone remains involved and active in making these initiatives successful.

5) Data will be shared via email and then discussed during a meeting.

Reflection (Due 9/15/18)

Reflection

The primary purpose of assessment is to use data to inform decisions and improve programs and operations; this is an on-going process of defining goals and expectations, collecting results, analyzing data, comparing current and past results and initiatives, and making decisions based on these reflections. Recalling this purpose, respond to the questions below.

1) How were assessment results shared in the program / department?

Please select all that apply. If "other", please use the text box to elaborate.

Distributed via email (selected)

Presented formally at staff / department / committee meetings (selected)

Discussed informally

Other (explain in text box below)

Results are shared at the end of each year when the Faculty meet to discuss the students' progress in the program. Official and individual letters are then written for the students. All faculty have access to them and can stay informed or even edit if necessary.

2) How frequently were assessment results shared?

Frequently (>4 times per cycle)
 Periodically (2-4 times per cycle)
 Once per cycle (selected)
 Results were not shared this cycle

3) With whom were assessment results shared?

Please select all that apply.

Department Head (selected)
 Dean / Asst. or Assoc. Dean
 Departmental assessment committee (selected)
 Other faculty / staff (selected)

4) Consider the impact of prior applied changes. Specifically, compare current results to previous results to evaluate the impact of a previously reported change. Demonstrate how the use of results improved student learning and/or operations.

The implementation of FREN 460G is really helping students' writing skills at the graduate level. As they take the class during their first semester of graduate studies, it is quite clear what our expectations are and how they should write in all classes. The mentoring program is also insuring that we keep track of their progress and difficulties, if any, so that they reach degree completion without any issue.

5) Over the past three assessment cycles, what has been the overall impact of "closing the loop"? Provide examples of improvements in student learning, program quality, or department operations that are directly linked to assessment data and follow-up analysis.

Thanks to our new initiatives, results on comprehensive exams have been stronger. Students are much more aware of the faculty's expectations and the overall methodology to succeed in Graduate school (and in French for that matter). They are required to follow and making the most of the mentoring program, which results in clearer goals and academic interests. At the MA level, most are not sure what they like to research but these strategies are certainly helping them to identify these interests. Overall, better discussions between the faculty members and clearer guidelines have helped increase recruitment. This Fall 2018, 7 new students joined the program and will receive an MA or an MA en route. Our improvements have allowed us to have a better vision of what we can offer to prospective students and how we can make sure they finish on time and in a satisfactory manner. Now, faculty members know exactly what to expect on a yearly basis (observations, progress report meetings, mentoring, etc.).
