University Committees

There are many opportunities for faculty and staff to engage in the governance of the University through service on University committees with each committee having a specific charge and responsibility. Committees report to the designated Vice President responsible for that area. Each spring the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs will distribute a call for service on committees, as membership on most committees is for three years, it is important to note that it may take several attempts before a vacancy from a specific unit occurs.

To find out who your representative from a given unit is and current vacancies are, please refer to the University Committee Membership List.

For last year's membership listing, please see Last Year's University Committee Membership List.
