

- Undergraduate
- Master's in Speech Language Pathology
- » Requirements
- » Courses
- » Semester-by-Semester Plan
- » Assistantships
- » International Students
- » Career Opportunities
- PhD in Applied Language & Speech Sciences

Home » Programs » Master's in Speech Language Pathology

Master's Degree Semester-by-Semester Plan

Our master's program is designed so you can complete the degree within two years. Follow this plan to stay on track and graduate on time.

Year One

Summer Term

- CODI 500 Research Methods
- CODI 504 Voice Disorders

Fall Semester

- CODI 508 Aphasia
- CODI 526 Child Language Disorders
- CODI 531 Medical Speech Pathology (Dysphagia)
- CODI 540 Fluency Disorders
- CODI 510 Clinical Practicum I

Spring Semester

- CODI 524 Communication Science (Instrumentation)
- CODI 528 Language and Literacy
- CODI 522 Speech Sound Disorders
- CODI 510 Clinical Practicum I
- Elective

Year Two

Summer Term

- CODI 510 Clinical Practicum I

CODI Students

CODI Undergraduates Inducted to National Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society

On Saturday, February 11, 2017, undergraduate students Mary McMahon, Ashley Bernard, and Taja White from the Communicative Disorders (CODI) program were inducted to the University of Louisiana at Lafayette Phi Kappa Phi chapter.

- Elective

Fall Semester

- CODI 550 Advanced Clinical Research
- CODI 512 Clinical Practicum II
- Elective

Spring Semester

- CODI 550 Advanced Clinical Research
- CODI 512 Clinical Practicum II or CODI 513 Externship
- CODI 595 Capstone Seminar
- Elective

Department of Communicative Disorders
231 Hebrard Blvd.
Burke-Hawthorne Hall
(337) 482-6721 | codi@louisiana.edu

@Louisiana Newsletter

Enter your email address

SIGN UP

Connect With Us

A Member of the UL System

IT Help & Support

Web Accessibility

Privacy Policy

Emergency Info

Donate

© 2019 University of Louisiana at Lafayette. All rights reserved.