Centrally located on the main campus of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, Edith Garland Dupré Library is at the heart of the University. Here, you have access to millions of volumes and e-resources, plus an array of special collections like the Ernest J. Gaines Center and the Cajun & Creole Music Collection.

Explore our resources or take a break to sip a coffee in Jazzman's Café & Bakery. Feel free to use one of our 200+ computers, or learn about the library's resources in our SMART classroom.

Credo Reference provides over 3 million full text entries on all disciplines from reference works including online dictionaries, encyclopedias, biographies, guides and more. It also includes additional content from other sources such as EBSCO, JSTOR, and Google Books. Credo is updated regularly.

Did You Know?

The Librarian on Demand program is another new resource for the university community.

University groups (student organizations, dorms, university departments, etc.) will be able to book instruction sessions, presentations, and/or Q&A discussions with a librarian. These group appointments will be held at the location and time of the group's choosing.

As part of the Librarian on Demand program, there will be a librarian available in the Writing Center on:

Tuesdays
2:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Wednesdays
10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.
