

Achieve a New Mission

The Office of Veteran Services can provide you with the information you need to reach your academic goals.

Call or stop by our office today!

Take Advantage of the Benefits You've Earned

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette and the Office of Veteran Services proudly supports those who have served our country.

Many of the men and women who have military service, and their family members, qualify for education benefits—because the military knows that furthering your education will help you on your path to success. The mission of our office is to help you obtain the benefits you need to reach your educational goals and to offer guidance along the way.

It is your time. Let us help you make the most of it.
