

This year's annual report celebrates you, our donors.

Your gifts to the University of Louisiana at Lafayette during 2013-2014 made it one of the most exciting and memorable years in the 57-year history of the UL Lafayette Foundation. Our donors gave a record number of gifts and the Foundation earned an impressive return on the investment you made with us. The following pages showcase a few who stepped into the limelight in support of the University. Your gifts and dedication take center stage at a momentous time in the ongoing story that is UL Lafayette.

Dear Friends,

Our University inspires us and creates sentiments unique to each individual, every class and every generation. We embrace a shared enthusiasm for the potential of UL Lafayette which helped stimulate the adoption of a master plan for the University and an athletics master plan which will guide the growth and success of UL and Ragin' Cajuns® Athletics for years to come. Recognition of UL Lafayette as a top ranked research university speaks to a passionate faculty dedicated to their professions and to our community.

We are pleased to present our report on philanthropy in the enclosed publication along with an insert of our most current financial summary and a snapshot of our investment performance through June 30, 2015. In addition, you can find a full listing of all our donors, funds and programs which are posted on our website at www.ullafayettefoundation.org.

The report highlights some of our donors, who graciously “stepped into the limelight” in honor of this year’s theme. These are only a few of our supporters, among many, who have been contributing to the University. We are grateful for each and every one of you for your generosity. It is our hope the University continues to inspire and impassion you.

On behalf of the University of Louisiana Lafayette Foundation Board of Trustees, our staff and campus community, I wish to thank you for your generosity and continued support to our University.

Sincerely,

Julie Bolton Falgout, MBA ('05)

FROM L TO R: RODNEY VILLARREAL OF RODNEY VILLARREAL DESIGN - NEW ORLEANS, PROJECT DESIGNER, JASON LOWEKSTEIN AND CARL ANDERSON ('12) OF OFFSHORE ENERGY SERVICES

ENGINEERING STUDENT LOUNGE

When Offshore Energy Services decided to make a student-centered gift to the Industrial Technology (ITEC) department in the College of Engineering, they enlisted the help of employee Carl Anderson ('12). Anderson identified renovation of the ITEC student lounge as a gift with the most immediate impact. His employer agreed and funded the entire project complete with study carrels, new lighting, high-tech computer equipment, comfortable seating, microwave and coffee pot. The result? A state of the art retreat that facilitates learning and collaboration.

High-tech computer equipment highlights part of this retreat.

The Department of Industrial Technology in the College of Engineering blends applied research, utilizing the newest technologies, and tried and true business practices. Students are prepared for a career in organizations ranging from the military to the oil field.

Robert Merrick

Van Eaton & Romero, a Latter & Blum Company, aligned with other local businesses such as Northwestern Mutual in partnership with the B. I. Moody III College of Business Administration. The Lafayette real estate firm sponsors a sales training room where students hone their skills in marketing & sales. Latter & Blum Chairman & CEO Robert Merrick made a personal gift to the college, joining the association between the college and business community sure to yield outstanding results for years to come.

UL Lafayette's B. I. Moody III College of Business Administration is included in the 2015 edition of the Princeton Review's "Best 296 Business Schools."

NANCY VAN EATON BROUSSARD, BILL BACQUE ('73), AND GAIL ROMERO OF VAN EATON & ROMERO.

MARIANNE BOURGEOIS ('81), PRESIDENT OF APEX INNOVATIONS.

Marianne Bourgeois feels a responsibility to help others, believes in the importance of setting an example, and takes the opportunity to make a difference very seriously. Her company, Apex Innovations, answered a call for help from the College of Nursing and Allied Health Professions for support in funding the maintenance and operation of its teaching laboratories. Through sponsorship of the Adult Care Simulation Lab, Marianne fosters the education and touches the lives of each Nursing student at UL Lafayette.

Each Nursing student uses the Adult Care Simulation Lab.

As one of the largest nursing programs in the United States, UL Lafayette is proud to have first-time pass rates on the NCLEX-RN that consistently exceed national and state averages.

JIM & CHARLOTTE DOYLE

A strong athletics program generates financial support to athletics and academics.

Former football letterman Jim Doyle and his wife, Charlotte, support both academics and athletics. An emeritus member of the UL Lafayette Foundation Board of Trustees, and former Alumni Association Board member, Jim recognizes the positive effect of, and goodwill generated by, a strong nationally recognized athletics program resulting in financial support to both athletics and academics. Jim and Charlotte have funded two professorships, two scholarships, and an endowed athletics fund.

With UL Lafayette's football, tennis, basketball, volleyball, men's baseball and women's softball programs garnering national attention, all aspects of the University prosper from gifts to UL Lafayette Athletics.

JIM ('71) AND CHARLOTTE DOYLE

UL LAFAYETTE GOLF FANS BRAD MOSING AND HERB SCHILLING MADE GIFTS TO HELP PURCHASE THE TEAM VAN.

As the late Ira “Chuck” Dearing (’60) watched opposing teams arrive at golf matches in customized vehicles, the long-time fan and his wife Judith decided that their Ragin’ Cajuns’® golfers needed a similar mode of transportation. A small group of fans rallied behind Dearing, and in a short period of time, a vehicle perfectly suited for UL Lafayette Golf carries the team in style to matches across the country. Their gift captures the heart of what it means to be a Ragin’ Cajun.

Over 5,200 student-athletes play NCAA Division I golf.
