

Dean H. Gordon Brooks II, College of Arts, came to the University in 1990 from the University of Arkansas where he served as Professor and Assistant Dean for Architecture in the School of Architecture. He also served as the Director of the Center for Design Media and Environmental Research while maintaining an architectural practice. He holds a M.Arch. in Architecture from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (1974) and a B.Arch. in architecture from Louisiana State University (1969). Since arriving at UL Lafayette Brooks has led numerous initiatives, including ArTech Fusion, a program in the College of the Arts that promotes and highlights the dynamic relationships between the Arts and Technology.